Mark 12:28 ^{NIV}

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

Mark 12:29-31 ^{NIV}

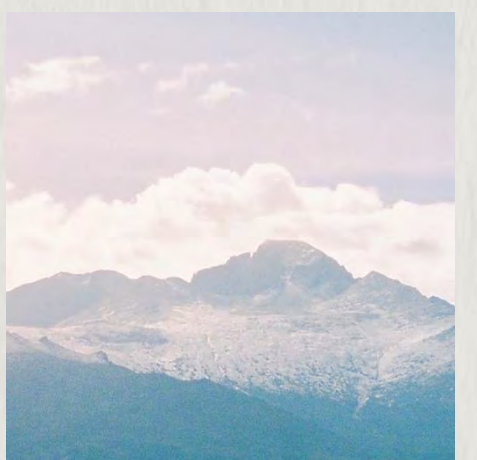

“The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ ³¹ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

The Shema

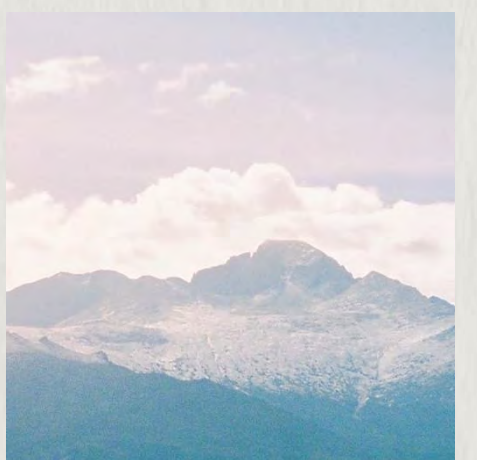

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 ^{NIV}

Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵ Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹ Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Mark 12:29-31 ^{NIV}

“The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ ³¹ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

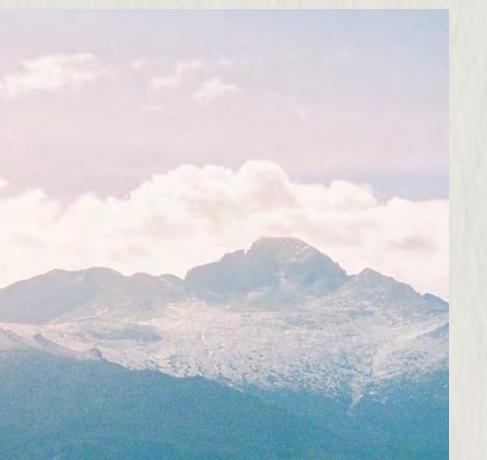

Why should we love God?

Who He is What He has done Designed for Intimacy

“God is self-existent, self-dependent, self-sufficient, self-contained, and in need of nothing. He is immutable, infinite, eternal, and incomprehensible. He is omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent, and omnibenevolent. He is sovereign, righteous, just, and merciful. He is transcendent above all creation, yet immanent within it. He is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. He is worthy of all praise, honor, and worship, for there is none like Him, and no one can compare to His greatness.”

“Oh, to love Him! This is the crown and glory of life—this is the joy and happiness of existence.”

Why can loving God be difficult?

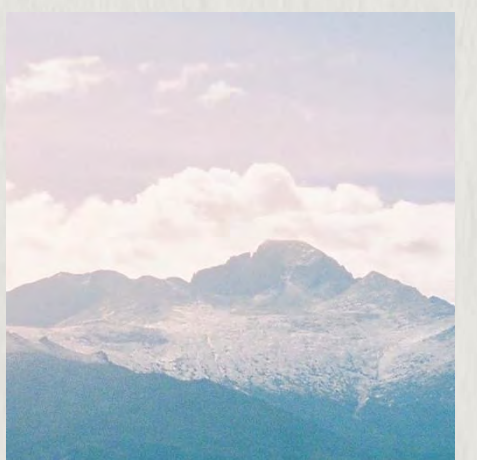

The lure of idolatry

The effects of our sin nature

The dominance of our self-centeredness

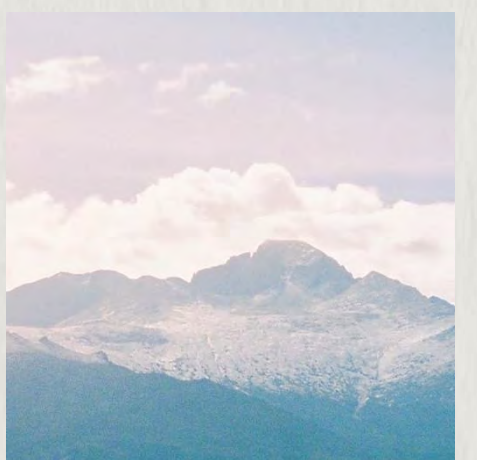

The shallowness of the human heart

The pain of a fallen world

Mark 12:32-34 ^{NIV}

“Well said, teacher,” the man replied. “You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. ³³ To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.” ³⁴ When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions.

How do we love God? Wholeheartedly

With ALL our Heart

With ALL our Soul

With ALL our Mind

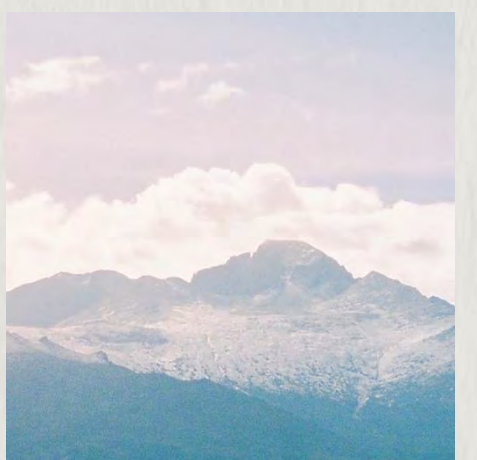

With ALL our Strength

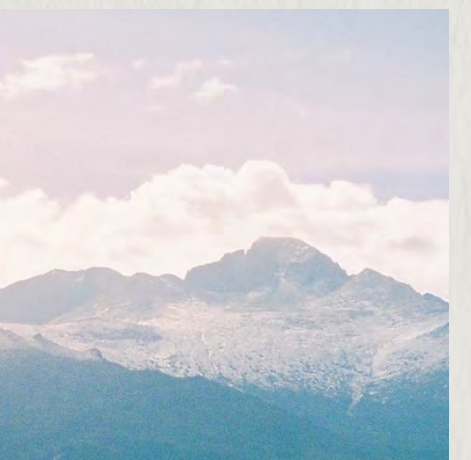

How do we love God? Sacrificially

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? ¹⁸ Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
