Introduction and Preparation

Mark 1:1-13

A brief introduction sets Jesus' ministry in motion.

John the Baptist prepares the way.
Jesus is tempted in the wilderness.

The Servant at work

Mark 1:14 - Mark 8:30

An unbroken chain of events reveals Jesus helping people in need.

Because people are afflicted, He heals.
Because people are without hope, He encourages.
Because people are in bondage to satanic control, He liberates.
Because people are sinful, He forgives.

The Servant Rejected... then Exalted

Mark 8:31 - Mark 16:20

A growing discontent among the authorities leads to Jesus' suffering and death.

He presses the claim of being the Messiah.
He spends more time alone with His disciples.
He comes into open conflict with His enemies.
He is hated, deserted, tortured, crucified and buried.
He is raised bodily from the dead!

He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again.

Jesus is the one who has the right and power to rule, yet He will ascend His throne by death on a cross,
which no one, not even His closest disciples, expected.

He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. “Get behind me, Satan!” he said. “You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me."

“Self-denial is not to deny one’s personality, to die as a martyr, or to deny material things. Rather it is the turning away from the idolatry of self-centeredness and belief that the ultimate goal of life is to perpetuate your own happiness.”
